COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs,

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

-against-

ECF Case

BLOSSOM WEST INC. (D/B/A BLOSSOM ON COLUMBUS), RONEN SERI, RAMIRO
RAMIREZ, JESUS DOE, and CHINO DOE,

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiffs Efrain Tarax Tarax, Getulio Lopez Murillo, Manuel Jesus Sontay Herrera, and Santos Tarax, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon their knowledge and belief, and as against Blossom West Inc. (d/b/a Blossom on Columbus), (“Defendant Corporation”), Ronen Seri, Ramiro Ramirez, Jesus Doe, and Chino Doe, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiffs are both current and former employees of Defendants Blossom West Inc. (d/b/a Blossom on Columbus), Ronen Seri, Ramiro Ramirez, Jesus Doe, and Chino Doe.

2. Defendants own, operate, or control a vegan restaurant, located at 507 Columbus Avenue, New York, New York 10024 under the name “Blossom on Columbus”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Ronen Seri, Ramiro Ramirez, Jesus Doe, and Chino Doe, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the restaurant as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiffs have been employed as porters, dishwashers, and ostensibly as delivery workers at the restaurant located at 507 Columbus Avenue, New York, New York 10024.

5. Plaintiffs Lopez and Sontay have ostensibly been employed as delivery workers. However, they have been required to spend a considerable part of their work day performing non-tipped duties, including but not limited to cutting potatoes and vegetables, washing dishes, preparing food, cleaning the bathrooms, taking out the garbage, twisting and tying cardboard boxes, stocking deliveries into the refrigerator, and bringing up items from the refrigerator to the kitchen (hereafter the “non-tipped duties”).

6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiffs have worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that they have worked.

7. Rather, Defendants have failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiffs appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

8. Further, Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiffs the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which they have had to work over 10 hours a day.

9. Furthermore, Defendants have repeatedly failed to pay Plaintiffs wages on a timely basis.

10. Defendants have employed and accounted for Plaintiffs Lopez and Sontay as delivery workers in their payroll, but in actuality their duties have required a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties alleged above.

11. Regardless, at all relevant times, Defendants have paid these Plaintiffs at the lowered tip-credited rate.

12. However, under both the FLSA and NYLL, Defendants are not entitled to take a tip credit because these Plaintiffs' non-tipped duties have exceeded 20% of each workday, or 2 hours per day, whichever is less in each day. 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146.

13. Upon information and belief, Defendants have employed the policy and practice of disguising these Plaintiffs' actual duties in payroll records by designating them as delivery workers instead of non-tipped employees. This has allowed Defendants to avoid paying Plaintiffs Lopez and Sontay at the minimum wage rate and has enabled them to pay them at the lowered tip-credited rate.

14. Defendants' conduct has extended beyond Plaintiffs to all other similarly situated employees.

15. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants have maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

16. Plaintiffs now bring this action on behalf of themselves, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq.

and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

17. Plaintiffs seek certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of themselves, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

19. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a vegan restaurant located in this district. Further, Plaintiffs have been employed by Defendants in this district.

127. Plaintiff Santos was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

128. Although Plaintiff Santos was required to keep track of his time, Defendants required him to record fewer hours than he actually worked. As a result, Plaintiff Santos was not compensated for all of the hours that he worked.

129. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Santos regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

130. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Santos an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

131. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Santos, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Santos's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

132. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants have maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying them appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

133. Plaintiffs have been victims of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate their rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying them the wages they have been owed for the hours they have worked.

134. Defendants' pay practices have resulted in Plaintiffs not receiving payment for all their hours worked, and have resulted in Plaintiffs' effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

135. Defendants have habitually required Plaintiffs to work additional hours beyond their regular shifts but have not provided them with any additional compensation.

136. Defendants have required Plaintiffs Lopez and Sontay and all other delivery workers to perform general non-tipped tasks in addition to their primary duties as delivery workers.

137. These Plaintiffs and all similarly situated employees, have ostensibly been employed as tipped employees by Defendants, although their actual duties included a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties outlined above.

138. These Plaintiffs' duties have not been incidental to their occupation as tipped workers, but instead have constituted entirely unrelated general restaurant work with duties, including the non-tipped duties described above.

139. These Plaintiffs and all other tipped workers have been paid at the lowered tip-credited rate by Defendants.

140. However, under state law, Defendants are not entitled to a tip credit because the tipped worker's and these Plaintiffs' non-tipped duties exceed 20% of each workday (or 2 hours a day, whichever is less) (12 N.Y.C.R.R. § 146).

141. New York State regulations provide that an employee cannot be classified as a tipped employee on any day in which he or she has been assigned to work in an occupation in which tips are not customarily received. (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§137-3.3 and 137-3.4). Similarly, under federal regulation 29 C.F.R. §531.56(e), an employer may not take a tip credit for any employee time if that time is devoted to a non-tipped occupation.

142. In violation of federal and state law as codified above, Defendants have classified these Plaintiffs and other tipped workers as tipped employees, and have paid them at a rate that is lower than the tip-credited rate when they should have classified them as non-tipped employees and paid them at the minimum wage rate.

143. Defendants have failed to inform Plaintiffs who received tips that Defendants intended to take a deduction against Plaintiffs' earned wages for tip income, as required by the NYLL before any deduction may be taken.

144. Defendants have failed to inform Plaintiffs who received tips, that their tips are being credited towards the payment of the minimum wage.

145. Defendants have failed to maintain a record of tips earned by Plaintiffs who have worked as delivery workers for the tips they received.

146. Defendants' time keeping system has not reflected the actual hours that Plaintiffs have worked.

147. Defendants have willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

148. On a number of occasions, Defendants have required Plaintiffs to sign a document the contents of which they have not been allowed to review in detail.

149. Defendants have required Plaintiffs to sign a document that reflected inaccurate or false hours worked.

150. Defendants have paid Plaintiffs their wages in cash and then by personal check.

151. Defendants have failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

152. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants have been done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiffs (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiffs properly for their full hours worked.

153. Defendants have engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

154. Defendants' unlawful conduct is intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated former workers.

155. Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

156. Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

157. Plaintiffs bring their FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the "FLSA Class members"), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the "FLSA Class Period").

158. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs and other members of the FLSA Class have been similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.

159. The claims of Plaintiffs stated herein are similar to those of the other employees.
